Current as of October 2013

S.U.C.C.E.S.S. Northern BC Newcomers Integration Service Centre (NISC) is located in downtown Fort St John. NISC provides settlement services to the immigrant community in the north. Our employees have developed close ties with the local ethnic communities, service providers, and employers in the area. We are working together to promote the integration and community participation of new and established Canadians.

In addition to the services made available in our Fort St. John office, please note that we can provide free job referral services (circulate job postings among different S.U.C.C.E.S.S. offices via e-mail) and organize a recruitment workshop or job fair at S.U.C.C.E.S.S. for any employer who has a mass hiring need. This would be made accessible to the immigrant community here in the Metro Vancouver area. For more information on this you can contact Marianna Pang 604-408-7274 ext. 2045 or via email at Marianna.pang@success.bc.ca

Also, here are some other S.U.C.C.E.S.S. based resources for employers, including a job posting system and diversity in the workplace resources:
